TEACHERS' NOTES

This study guide, written to accompany the release of the film, The Grinch comprises photocopiable worksheets and activities for use by teachers of primary school children. The activities within the study guide complement the delivery of many subjects within the National Curriculum, the National Literacy Strategy and the Scottish Guidelines – especially Literacy, English, Art, Design and Technology and Visual Literacy. The curriculum grid on the inside back cover provides an outline of which attainment targets the activities within the pack pertain to.

The activities are differentiated by outcome, although teachers may wish to amend the tasks to suit their particular group.

It is not necessary to have seen the film to complete the worksheets contained within this study guide. We do, however, recommend taking a group of children to see the film at the local cinema if possible. (Please check the certificate before you go. If it is a PG rating, parental permission is required.) Cinema managers are often amenable to screening the film at a reduced rate and at a suitable time for large groups of children, so it is worth giving your local cinema a call.

SYNOPSIS

The delightfully quirky world of Dr. Seuss' The Grinch comes to spectacular life on the big screen from Universal Pictures and Imagine Entertainment, in this hilarious and charming new live-action comedy fantasy starring Jim Carrey as the Grinch.

The Grinch is set in the tiny fantasy village of Whoville inside a snowflake, where all the Whos are excitedly preparing for their annual Christmas celebrations...

A miserly recluse whose heart is two sizes too small, The Grinch lives in his cave atop Mount Crumpit with his dog (and only friend!) Max.

Annoyed by the out-of-control Christmas festivities in Whoville, the Grinch conspires to deprive the Whos of their favourite holiday celebrations...but they all come to learn that the true spirit of Christmas goes much deeper than tinsel and toys...

The Grinch, directed by Ron Howard (Apollo 13) and produced by Brian Grazer (Nutty Professor II: The Klumps) is released at cinemas nationwide on 1st December 2000 (Cert: TBC). Aided by the artistry of Academy Award-winning special make-up effects designer Rick Baker, The Grinch brilliantly re-creates the magical town of Whoville and its unique inhabitants. The film also stars Jeffrey Tambor, Christine Baranski, Bill Irwin, Molly Shannon and Taylor Momsen.

THE WHO'S-WHO OF WHOVILLE

The cast of The Grinch is made up of a race of tiny people called the Whos. They live in Whoville - a magical tiny town INSIDE a snowflake.

Some of the main characters in the film are:

!The Grinch  !Little Cindy Lou-Who  !Max the Dog

Most of the Whos in Whoville have names that rhyme with the word 'who': like Betty Lou Who, Lou Lou Who, Cindy Lou Who. Others have names with 'Whos' as part of the surname - like Martha May Who-Vier and Officer Who-Lihan.

Make up some more names of some pretend Whoville occupants.

Based on what you can see in the pictures alone, how would you describe the Who's of Whoville? Use the following headings to help you:

THE HOW OF WHOVILLE

The story of The Grinch is set in a magical wonderland called Whoville. This is the place where the Whos live – and the Grinch himself lives just north of Whoville, up on Mount Crumpit, with Max the Dog – his only friend.

The film makers had to build Whoville from scratch, with only Dr. Seuss’ drawings from the book to help them. These drawings are very quirky and off-kilter.

There are people in film crews whose job it is to build the set. They spend a long time getting the look of the set right so that you believe what you are seeing is real.

Try your hand at set design by drawing your version of the Whoville set. Use the images from Dr. Seuss’ book ‘How The Grinch Stole Christmas!’ if you can. Remember, it is Christmas time and the weather is cold in Whoville, so make sure there is lots of snow.

Try to include the following:
- 4 houses
- 2 shops
- a bank
- a hotel
- snow-capped trees
- The Whos
- The Grinch

If you were asked to choose a location to build your Whoville, where in the world would you go and why? Compose a letter to the local Film Commission asking permission to film there.

THE GRINCH'S CAVE

As well as building the Whoville town from scratch, the set designers also had some fun with the Grinch's cave.

The Grinch's cave is a very dark and gloomy place, because he himself is quite a dark and gloomy character. Imagine that the Grinch changes and becomes a happy character. How would this change his living arrangements?

Imagine that a happier Grinch wants to re-decorate the inside and outside of his cave and he has hired you to do the makeover. Design the inside and outside of his new cave, showing how you have changed it into a brighter and happier place.

THE GRINCH -
WHOSE HEART IS TWO SIZES TOO SMALL

The Grinch is a live-action movie. That means all of the characters are played by actors and actresses in costumes and make-up. The ‘magic’ of the film is created through hundreds of special effects.

Jim Carrey, who plays the Grinch, is famous for being able to contort his face and body in funny ways when he is acting. This was particularly handy for playing the role of the Grinch.

The Grinch goes from looking very sad and grumpy and finding pleasure in making other people sad, to then feeling guilty about stealing Christmas from the Whos.

The Grinch is a very nasty piece of work to start off with. Why do you think he is such a grouchy, grumpy character? In the film, you find out why and it is all to do with how he was treated as a child.

Try to imagine that the Grinch is your age. Write his diary over the course of a week to show how he was being treated and how that turned him into such a nasty character. What do you think may have happened to him at school?

Imagine that the Grinch learns how to be happy about Christmas in Whoville. Write a diary entry for him on Christmas Eve. How does he feel?

What is he looking forward to?

www.filmeducation.org
THE GRINCH'S GRIPE

The Grinch does not just steal Christmas because he is a cold-hearted meany. It is also because he is fed up about the Whos going on and on about the presents and the yummy food. Christmas should mean more than wrapping paper and mince pies. Shouldn't it?

Write a list of reasons why the Grinch hates how the Whos celebrate Christmas.

Turn it into a manifesto – a declaration of what he thinks Christmas should be all about.

Use the manifesto below for inspiration – but do not copy it!

The Grinch's Manifesto

NO NOISE AT CHRISTMAS
NO PRESENTS
NO LAUGHING
NO CHRISTMAS PUD
NO CRACKERS
NO CHARADES

AND DEFINITELY NO BING CROSBY
TO CAMERA

Films use lots of different tools to help tell a story. The film, The Grinch, is no exception.

Study the image on the right and answer the questions below:

1. Where is the camera placed to shoot this scene: far away, up close, above or below the action?

2. Describe five things that you can see in the frame?

3. In no more than ten words, write down what you think will happen next in the sequence.

4. Write the dialogue for this scene – or what you think is being said.

5. Devise some sound effects for this scene: perhaps some 'Christmas noises'.

Extension Task

Who do you think would go and see this film? Which age group? Do you think boys or girls would enjoy it the most? Carry out a survey amongst the children in your class or school to find out who would go and see the film, The Grinch. Then design a poster for the film trying to get people interested in going to see it.

Do not forget to include: the title, the star, the certificate, the release date and the running time. Look on the internet if you do not know all of this information (www.grinched.com or www.filmeducation.org).

WHO-LLELUWAH AND WHO-BILATION!
IT’S THE GRINCH’S GLORIOUS ADVENT CALENDAR ACTIVITY!

Here is how to make your own Grinch-inspired Advent calendar for Christmas.

1. Take two pieces of A4 card.
2. On one of them, draw 24 boxes of equal size evenly spaced on the card, making sure there is a border.
3. On the other piece of card, do exactly the same.
4. On the first piece, cut out the boxes so that they make doors that you can open. Do this by cutting along every line apart from the left-hand one.
5. Number them randomly 1-24 on the outside of the ‘door’.
6. On the other piece of A4 card, draw Christmassy pictures inspired by The Grinch and colour them in.
7. Put glue around the border of the second piece of card and carefully stick the first one over the top.
8. You are now ready to start opening the doors every day from 1st December leading up to Christmas.

Happy Grinchmas!
